

Criteria for 55th “Citizen of the Year”

Note: The winner is selected based on accomplishments, not by the number of nominations received!

The following system is used in selecting the Citizen of the Year:

- Nominee should have contributed to this community’s welfare and betterment.
- Participation in all-around community activities and civic enterprise.
- Evidence of lasting contribution to community welfare.
- Evidence of leadership ability.
- Cooperation with individuals and civic organizations.
- Unselfish devotion and contribution without thought to personal gain.

Person nominated must live in Dixon, the contributions and community activities must have taken place in the City of Dixon.

Duplicated letters or petitions will NOT be accepted.

Letters must be written and signed.